1888 Samalens Bas Armagnac

This brandy was distilled in 1888 and bottled in 1957. It is noticeably more fragrant than cognac of the same age. Believe it or not, the year this was distilled, Maurice Chevalier was born, golf was introduced to the U.S. the wax drinking straw was patented, Eastman Kodak Company was formed, and distraught Dutch painter, Vincent van Gogh cut off his left ear and sends it to his girlfriend. This Historic brandy is from the far south western part of France. A great gift for someone turning 50 this year!

Louis XIII de Remy Martin ~~~1.75ml or 750ml

The highest quality Cognac on the market today, Louis XIII de Remy Martin has been carefully tended by three generations of Remy Martin cellar masters. As a result it's a magical combination of art and patience. Louis XIII de Remy Martin uses only grapes from the Grande Champagne region which guarantees its unique, exclusive quality. It is blended from eaux de vie, some more than a century in age, then it is aged in 'tiercons', barrels that are several hundred years old, in a cellar set apart for it alone. Undoubtedly the world's finest, this exceptional Cognac has always been a favorite in the world of politics, fashion, and art. Beautifully boxed & packaged in Baccarat Crystal...the bottle alone is worth the price!

Gran Marnier Cuvee de Cent Cinqtenaire or Gran Marnier Centenaire

Gran Marnier Cuvee de Cent Cinqtenaire & Centenaire were issued to commemorate the 150th & 100th anniversary of Marnier-Lapostolle. Both are distilled with the essence of wild tropical oranges and the Marnier secret a perfect balance between the elegance and complexity of the cognac and the essence of orange.

Gran Centenario Tequila Leyenda

Gran Centenario Leyenda is among the first Tequilas to ever be awarded the classification "Extra Añejo." Combining only 100% Blue Agave with an average aging process of 4 years in French Limousin oak barrels, Leyenda has remained the best kept secret in the highlands of Jalisco.
